

Cellular Infusion

Humic/Fulvic Acids with Zeolite Tincture Infused with Molecule 'X'®

Advanced Naturopathic Medicine
Evidence Based & Clinically Proven Dietary Supplement

Provides a humus, plant-based, nano sized, micelle particle molecules, infused with zeta enhanced alkaline water, blended with zeolite to effectuate cellular reception, transmission and absorption of Phase I subtle energies and nutrients.

Keep out of reach of children.

Cellular Infusion (CI850)

Cellular Infusion the ONLY Humic/Fulvic Acids & Zeolite Tincture infused with Molecule 'X' in the World!

Humic/fulvic acids and zeolite are derived from humus or decomposed organic plant material. They contain vitamins, trace and major minerals, amino acids, beneficial microbes and more. They are a powerful electrolyte maintaining cellular, electrical, zeta potential. They also are superb free radical scavengers and antioxidants along with natural chelators and detoxifying agents. Best of all they help to increase other nutrient's bio-availability.

Cellular Infusion is equal to 500 mgs of humic & fulvic acids and 500 mgs of zeolite per dose. One bottle will last over one month.

Humic and Fulvic Acid

Benefits:

Research is only starting to uncover the important role these minerals play in supporting the body in various ways including digestion, cell health, brain health and more!

Digestion:

Fulvic acid helps digestion and assists the body with absorbing nutrients from food. There is evidence that suggests fulvic and humic acids can help the body to fight small intestine bacterial overgrowth, by helping the body to maintain a beneficial bacterial balance.

Cellular Health:

Fulvic acid helps water enter cells at a faster rate, leading to a balanced hydration and mineral level. Consuming Fulvic acid helps support proper biochemical reactions in plants and animals and optimizes cell response.

Brain Health and Energy:

Fulvic and Humic acid actively take part in the transportation of nutrients into deep tissues and helps to overcome tiredness, lethargy, and chronic fatigue. Research has shown that it is known to discourage age-related cognitive impairment, Alzheimer's disease, jaundice, bronchitis and anemia.

Clinical testimonies from individuals have noted many positive reports in the healing of cancer, fibromyalgia, arthritis, wounds, autism and chronic pain.

Zeolite

Zeolite is a breakthrough supplement that works at the cellular level and is known to remove toxins, free radicals and heavy metals from the body. Zeolite has been proven to be very effective in removing radiation and was effectively used in the cleanup of Chernobyl.

Zeolite acts as an antiviral, helps balance the pH in the body and boosts the immune system.

Zeolite is known to help with the treatment of cancer, diarrhea, autism, herpes, and hangover.

Molecule 'X' ®

After decades of research, trial and error, Dr. Chappell discovered an energetic signature created by combining six individual frequency generators from Victor Schauberger, Valerie Hunt, Massuro Emoto, Royal Rife, Colonel Dinshah and his own 432 Hz infuser. He is now able to infuse these energetic signatures in solids, liquids, cremes, powder and more. Cellular Infusion is the ONLY product of this kind infused with Molecule 'X'.

Taking specific pH rated, ironically charged, mineralized, distilled water and adding Molecule 'X' proportionate to the degree of total dissolved solids (TDS), Dr. James Chappell has created the first intelligent, imprinted, bio-available water concentrate.
