PAY PLAN TERMS

1. $40 of personal volume generated any time during the calendar month is required to be qualified to receive commissions on the first 2 levels for that month. $100 of personal volume is required for the 3rd and 4th level commissions. Personal volume is usually generated from your own personal purchases. It can also be generated from 50% of the commissionable volume of the purchases of your preferred customers during the previous month. If you have enough preferred customer volume, you can do this business with no money out of your own pocket.

2. The company will pay 10% on each of 6 levels each month based on the following qualifications:

Levels 1-2: You must have $40 of personal volume as per item 1 above

Levels 3-4: You must have $100 of personal volume as per item 1 above

Level 5: In addition to $100 of personal volume, you must have at least 3 personally sponsored active distributors on your first level

You must also have at least 12 within your first two levels -- no more than 6 from one leg.

Level 6: In addition to $100 of personal volume, you must have at least 5 personally sponsored active distributors on your first level

You must also have at least 20 within your first two levels -- no more than 10 from one leg

The definition of "qualified distributor" is someone who generates $40 of personal volume during a given month.

3. Full Compression: If a distributor does not generate at least $40 of personal commissionable volume during a given calendar month, then the distributor will be compressed out of the commission statement for that month. Any active distributors on their first level will be compressed up one level. This dynamic compression begins from the top all the way to the bottom of the entire company organization.
4. Automatic Status Change: If a distributor does not generate any personal commissionable volume, earn any commissions or generate any invoices either with Whole Wellness Club or Global One Up during a 120 day period, then their status is changed from that of a distributor to that of a preferred customer.
5. Preferred Customer Volume:
When you are a qualified distributor: The company will pay 20% commission to the sponsoring distributor on all personally sponsored preferred customer volume on the first of the following month. We will pay an additional 10% (for a total of 30%) if the distributor has $100 of personal volume or more. In addition to this, the company will assign half (50%) of the volume of those preferred customers to the sponsor on the first of the following month. That volume will be assigned to the sponsor as the sponsor's own personal volume. The company will pay 10% on that volume on each of 6 levels above the sponsor for the following month according to the commission qualification rules.

There is no personal commissionable volume requirement to get paid 20% on preferred customer purchases.

When you are a Preferred Customer: You may refer other preferred customers to earn 20% commission that is only available for product purchases. 10% commission will be assigned to the first upline distributor with $100 of personal volume on the first of the following month. Half of the volume will be assigned to the first active upline distributor on the first of the following month. If the preferred customer changes their status to that of a distributor, then they are eligible for a commission check or a commission card deposit and half of the volume to be assigned to them on the first of the following month.

We may also use the data collected via cookies to tailor advertisements to you and to track the popularity of our website. Our use of cookies and other technologies may allow us and third parties to collect information about your browsing activities over time and across different websites following your use of our services.

That information includes the IP address of your computer and/or Internet service provider, when you access our website, the Internet address of websites from which you link to our website and from which you came before landing on our website, the browser that you are using, and your movements and preferences on our website. All of this information is used internally for the purpose of understanding how our website is being used and improving our website. We also may use third party analysis tools to collect data about your use of our mobile apps. - for the performance of a contract between you and us and/or taking steps, at your request, to enter into such a contract;
- for our legitimate interests, namely the proper administration of our business, the monitoring and improving of our website and Services, and the protection and assertion of our legal rights, your legal rights and the legal rights of others; and
- in limited circumstances, further to your consent.

Automated Decision Making.

We use automated processes to check Know-Your-Client (KYC) and Anti-Money Laundering (AML) data you provide to us in order to assess whether you are located in a banned country and, therefore, whether or not we are legally able to allow you to use our Services. However, those automated process support a decision-making process that, in most cases, is conducted by humans, who will review any red flag issues raised by the automated processes. In some cases, decisions related to KYC data (and which are necessary to establish whether or not we can enter into a contract for Services with you) will be entirely automated. In those cases:

- we perform a constant IP connection control in order to determine any potential connection to a banned country (in relation to account applications and/or during our relationship with you) and will reject any account application and/or relationship that is made from jurisdictions or regions that are prohibited by Whole Wellness Club policies in compliance with applicable sanctions regulations.
- account applications that infringe applicable rules will automatically be denied (for example, for customers that have submitted forged or fraudulent documents).
- account applications for which all information and/or documentation is processed and approved by automated online identification systems are approved without human intervention.

Definition of Spam

Spam is the sending of unsolicited and unauthorized e-mails or online communications such as but not limited to bulletin boards, user groups or instant messaging services to individuals or businesses who do not know you personally. And who have not agreed or requested to receive your emails. Or have not provided their email address directly to the sender. Or an email sent to a recipient who would not have a reasonable expectation of receiving email from the sender. Spam can be a single email or a bulk mailing.

Posting messages to Usenet or News Group groups that explicitly forbid the posting of commercial solicitations or solicitations not pertaining to their content is Spam.

Buying a list of emails from a third party and individually or bulk emailing them is considered Spam.

Opt-out lists where a person is specifically required to request removal from a mailing list in order to prevent solicitation is Spam.

Hiring a company that is mailing out to a list of people with your opportunity that did not specifically request to receive your information beforehand is considered Spam.

Emailing through an approved DOUBLE Opt-in list provider is NOT considered Spam. Double opt-in means that not only did the people request to be on the list, they verified it by approving the request a second time. The BEST guideline for knowing whether or not an email is Spam is if someone did not specifically request the information then it is SPAM.

Promoting Your Site on FFA (Free For All) sites is NOT allowed.

FFA sites (Free For All) sites and similar programs have a HIGH RISK of generating Spam complaints because of the nature of that type of program. Advertising on FFA sites is not permitted for promoting any Whole Wellness Club™ web site, related web site and/or services. Any complaints generated from advertising with FFA programs will be treated as Spam.

Free For All Sites are sites with lots of links to peoples' web sites. You are told that if you list your site, you will have your own FFA site where you can send people to post their links. Your link will be replicated to many other sites. You are told that every time someone adds their link, they will get an email telling them about your opportunity.

Then, your link is also on their site, and everyone who adds a link to their site gets an email from you. This leads to an enormous amount of email going out from you, automatically. Many people who put links on FFA sites don't realize that the tons of email they get is simply a result of posting their link, then they complain of SPAM.

FFA sites are notorious for generating Spam complaints. Marketing Whole Wellness Club on FFA sites is not allowed and will be treated as Spam.

Policy for using lists obtained from 3rd Parties

In general, many email lists obtained from third parties are culled from internet web sites, domain registrations, and other NON opt-in sources. The use of such lists with our system is prohibited.

There are certain cases when the use of a list obtained from a third party may be acceptable, however. In order for a mailing to a third party list to be acceptable under our unsolicited email policies, the following rules must be adhered to:

1. The email addresses obtained by the third party must be strictly opt-in, and follow all of our policies regarding opt-in email list collection.
2. The third party assembling the email list must make a clear disclosure stating that recipients' addresses ARE provided to others.
3. The third party must be able to provide documentation regarding the validity of the addresses in case of an unsolicited email complaint.
4. Any messages sent to addresses obtained from a third party must contain information disclosing the source of the addresses. IF A THIRD PARTY PROHIBITS SUCH DISCLOSURE, THEIR LIST MAY NOT BE USED WITH OUR SYSTEM.
5. The content of messages sent to addresses from a third party list must be consistent with the disclosure made to the recipients upon initial provision of the email address.

As a list owner, you are fully responsible for any third party's adherence to our policies for lists which you obtain and use in our system. Any violation of our policies by third parties will be seen as violations by you, and will subject your account to suspension, termination, and penalty fees accordingly.

MEMBER AGREEMENT

Legal Terms of Service

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

INTRODUCTION:

These Policies & Procedures are specifically incorporated by reference into the Member Agreement and have the same effect and force. The Application & Agreement, including the Terms and Conditions set forth on the front and the back thereof, along with these Policies & Procedures, from the Agreement between Whole Wellness Club™, LLC (hereinafter "the Company") and the Member (an independent contractor, hereinafter known as "Member") shall be effective only upon acceptance by the Company and its Member Services Office. These Policies & Procedures have been adopted in order to define the duties, responsibilities, and rights of Members among themselves and with the Company. The purpose is to develop relationships which are conducive to good business practices while maintaining the right of each Member regarding the structure of the Compensation Plan and how it causes your actions to directly and indirectly affect the business of other Members as well as your own.

AGREEMENT:

Member AGREES:

- 1) Member is of legal age in the state in which he/she resides.
- 2) Member will represent the Company with his/her best efforts to create and maintain an independent marketing company to sell the Company's products.

- 3) Member should have meaningful contact and supply meaningful support to her/his sales organization. This is not a requirement of the contract. It is an encouragement within the contract. The Company acknowledges that most Members are attempting to eventually create secure, walk-away, residual income which will no longer require direct personal involvement in business building activities.
- 4) Applicant is, upon acceptance, an Independent Contractor, called Member, conducting business for her/his own account and not an agent, employee, or franchisee for the Company. The Member further understands that she/he will not be treated as an employee in regard to any laws covering employees, including but not limited to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), the Social Security Act, the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, Income Tax withholding at the source, or for any federal or state taxes and local license fees that may become due as a result of activities under this agreement, and as an Independent Contractor shall be responsible for obtaining any licenses required by law.
- 5) Members are independent marketing Members of the Company and are not to be considered purchasers of a franchise. The agreement between the Company and its Members does not create an employer/employee relationship, agency, partnership, or joint venture between the Company and the Members. Each Member shall hold harmless the Company from any claims, damages or liabilities arising out of Member's business practices. Members have no authority to bind the Company to any obligation. Each Member is encouraged to set up his/her own hours and to determine his/her own methods of sale, so long as he/she complies with the policies and procedures of the Company.
- 6) In the conduct of its business, the Member shall safeguard and promote the reputation of the Company's products and the Company and shall refrain from all conduct which might be harmful to such reputation of the Company or to the marketing of such products or inconsistent with the public interest, and shall avoid all discourteous, deceptive, misleading, unethical or immoral conduct or practices.
- 7) Member shall be responsible for all taxes legally due to the taxing authority that has jurisdiction in his/her country. The Company will provide a report for each Member at the close of the calendar year stating the amount of commissions and bonuses earned under this agreement.
- 8) Member agrees that the Company will not be liable whatsoever for city, county, state, provincial, district and federal taxes or other fees pertaining to efforts and earnings of the Member.
- 9) Member is free to sell products and services of other companies.
- 10) Member shall not sponsor another Company Member into another Direct Sales, Multi-Level Marketing and/or Network Marketing company except for her/his personally sponsored Members. In addition, no Member shall participate in any action that causes another Member to be sponsored/recruited through someone else into another company. The only exception to this, is if the action is public and is directed at a public audience, such as hosting a conference call for another company. In such an instance, a Member is not deliberately attempting to cause another member of our company to be sponsored/recruited into another company. Member agrees that an expense of time and money is made when a sponsoring occurs which forms an enforceable business relationship between two Members. The Company has the responsibility to help protect these relationships and cross-sponsoring constitutes grounds for termination. The Company acknowledges that on occasion this term in the agreement may appear to have been breached by the Member, but that upon investigation, the Member may have had a long-standing, prior relationship with another Company Member who is not personally sponsored by the Member in the Company. If the Member sponsors such a Member into another Direct Sales, Multi-Level Marketing and/or Network Marketing company, this term may be deemed not breached by the Member. Judgment in these matters is at the discretion of the Company on a case-by-case basis.
- 11) Member shall have the right to exercise independent judgment as to the persons from whom to solicit orders for products and whom to sponsor into their network downline organization. The Company shall have the right, at its discretion, to prescribe procedural requirements that will not interfere with the Member's freedom of judgment or action, but which will ensure that orders or applications submitted to the Company will conform to the Company methods of conducting its business.

12) Member will forward all orders for products and Member Applications, together with all authorized money collections (never cash), to the address indicated on the Company order forms and Member Applications.

13) Member will not repackage any tangible Company product in any way. Member will not conceptually repackage any intangible or virtual Company product in any way. This is the Company's intellectual property.

14) Member shall make every reasonable effort before beginning to sell the Company products and sponsoring others to become familiar with the products and their descriptions. Member agrees to use only the Company business and promotional material provided by the Company and will conduct all business operations in strict compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements of any federal, state, county, municipal, or other governmental agency.

15) Member is not guaranteed a specific income. Financial success as a Member can come only from sale of Company products to the end consumer, building her/his own sales organization and training that organization to sell, sponsor, and train.

16) Member understands that financial reward is based on ability, personal effort, and initiative. In discussing the Company Compensation Plan, Member will make no claims as to income potential either written or oral except those prepared by the Company for illustration purposes only.

17) Member shall not make any claims with regard to specific income potential, including, citing as an example, any actual income made by any existing Member. No false or misleading income projections may be made to prospective Members. In their enthusiasm, Members are occasionally tempted to represent hypothetical income figures based upon the inherent power of network marketing as actual income projections. This is counter productive, since new Members may be quickly disappointed if their results are not as extensive or as rapid as a hypothetical model would suggest. The Company believes firmly that the income potential is great enough to be highly attractive in reality without resorting to artificial and unrealistic projections.

18) Member will not make any claims of any kind pertaining to benefits of the Company's products and services except those given in official Company promotional materials/media.

19) Member shall not represent or imply, directly or indirectly, that the Company program has been approved or endorsed by any governmental agency. Federal and State regulatory agencies do not ever approve or endorse any marketing company, product or programs.

20) Member will indemnify and hold the Company harmless from any and all claims, expenses, costs, causes of action, and damages resulting from or growing out of statements or actions by the Member which are in violation of this agreement.

21) The Member agreement may be canceled at any time and for any reason by a Member notifying the Company in writing of the election to cancel. Such cancellation shall constitute voluntary termination of the Member's right to represent the company and its products or to sponsor other Members.

22) If a Member elects to cancel his/her Member agreement, all rights to bonuses, marketing position and wholesale purchases cease. The voluntarily terminated Member's sales organization shall be transferred to his/her sponsor.

23) If a voluntarily terminated Member has purchased tangible products for inventory purposes or sales aids while the Member agreement was in effect, all unencumbered products in re-sellable condition then in possession of the Member, which have been purchased within thirty days (30) days of cancellation, shall be repurchased. The repurchase shall be at a price of not less than ninety percentage of the original net cost to the participant returning such goods. Net cost shall be value of the products less commissions, bonuses, or other payments made to the Member or another Member for this wholesale volume as it was calculated into the compensation plan.

Any bonuses or commissions already paid to the voluntarily terminated Member together with the value of any promotional prizes awarded to the Member, will be deducted from the refund amount which shall be paid within sixty (60) days.

Prior to returning products, order forms or sales aid/literature items, a Member must obtain a Return Authorization number from the Company by telephoning the Member Services Office. Items must be shipped to the Company's Home Office, freight prepaid by the Member. All returns must be in re-sellable condition and the Return Authorization number must be clearly noted on the box and in a letter enclosed in the shipping package.

24) The voluntarily terminated Member will be eligible to reapply and may choose a new sponsor after six (6) months. A voluntarily terminated Member that reenters the program may not sponsor any of her/his original downline organization.

25) The Member understands that the Company generally does not permit changing of sponsors.

Multi-Level Marketing (MLM) is a business of creating relationships. Once a Member is sponsored, the Company believes in maximum protection of that relationship. The only potential exception will be in the case of a Member using unethical means to sponsor someone. Otherwise sponsor changing can only be affected by voluntary termination and waiting six (6) months to rejoin under a new sponsor.

26) When presenting the Company program to others, the Member shall present the program in its entirety, without omission, distortion or misrepresentation.

27) The Company will pay the Member commissions and bonuses on moneys received and accepted by the Company for sale of products to the ultimate consumer (not sales aids) made by the Member and her/his sales organization under the terms of the Company Compensation Plan. Bonuses and increases are based upon sale of products and not upon recruiting other Members.

28) The Company will retain full authority to accept or reject any Application or any order for services or products submitted by the Member. Such refusal is solely within the discretion of the Company. No right of action against the Company will arise because of any such acceptance or refusal.

29) The Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion to amend, revise, institute, alter, or modify changes including but not limited to prices, literature, policies, this agreement, and the Compensation Plan. Any such revisions become effective by posting in the Company provided Members area of the web site, or by letters, or by publication in official Company literature, addressed and posted through the U. S. mail to the Member at her/his last known address. The Member agrees to be bound by these changes and the changes shall become part of this agreement ten days after mailing or web site posting.

30) The Company shall not be responsible for acts beyond its control, including, but not limited to: fire, flood, earthquake, storms, power outages, labor difficulty, equipment failure, supplier problems, or other difficulties that might prevent performance according to this agreement. The Company has made every good faith effort including extensive testing to assure that the Company's custom programmed software functions correctly and accurately. The Member agrees to hold the company harmless for abnormalities that are found in its custom software and once found the Company will make an effort to correct the error to be compliant with our stated business model as soon as possible but not to the level that disrupts current business nor to the extent that the error correction is backdated.

31) The Company assumes no liability for personal injury arising from the use or mishandling of any of the Company products.

32) The Company does not require the Member to sponsor or recruit anyone.

33) The Company's program is built upon retail sales and wholesale sales to the ultimate consumer.

The Company also recognizes that Members may wish to purchase product in reasonable amounts for their own personal or family use. For this reason, a retail sale for bonus purposes shall include sales to non-participants as well as sales to Members for personal or family use which are not made for purposes of qualification or advancement. It is Company policy, however, to strictly prohibit the purchase of product or large quantities of inventory in unreasonable amounts solely for the purpose of qualifying for bonuses or advancement in the marketing program. Members may not inventory load nor encourage others in the program to load up on inventory.

The 70% Requirement. Each Member commits to personally use, sell, or use in business building at least 70% of every order placed with the Company. Purchasing product solely for the purpose of collecting bonuses is prohibited. No bonuses, commissions or other compensation may be paid to any Member unless it is based in part on the sale of Company products to end users.

34) Members should not make promises about providing prospects or actually placing new Members under a prospect as an inducement to sponsorship. Ultimately each Member is responsible for building his/her own organization. To promise or imply that one Member will build an organization for another as an inducement to sponsorship through advertising support or any means other than training and supervisory assistance is not permitted.

A) The Company reserves the right to terminate this agreement immediately upon receipt of information sufficient to the Company that the Member has violated any term or condition of this agreement or has otherwise acted illegally or unethically. Member loses all right to bonuses and compensation from the date of termination and thereafter.

35) Members shall not make any claim regarding the training or the Compensation Plan which has not been expressed in official Company literature. The Company is responsible only for material printed in company approved literature. Members are expressly forbidden to imply that additional products or services will be added to the Company's products/services or that enhancements to the Compensation Plan are forthcoming or that specific geographical areas are about to be added to our area of operation.

36) The term of this agreement, with respect to each Member, is for the life span of the Member. Upon the death of the Member, this agreement may be transferred to the beneficiaries of the Member's estate if said beneficiaries agree to the Company's terms and conditions.

RENEWAL OF AGREEMENT:

Since the term of this agreement is in perpetuity, there is presently no need of renewing the agreement or making payment of any renewal fees. The Company may change this policy at its own discretion.

MEMBER RELATIONSHIPS:

Each person wanting to become a Member must be sponsored into the program by a Member in good standing. No one may be sponsored by more than one person.

Should a husband/wife Member divorce, they must notify the company in writing, signed and notarized by both parties, indicating how the Member position is to be managed thereafter.

Otherwise, the Company shall consider the person who was originally listed as the applicant to be the surviving Member.

CORPORATIONS, PROPRIETORSHIPS, PARTNERSHIPS & TRUSTS:

Corporations, Proprietorships, Partnerships and Trusts ("Business Entities") may become Members. However, one individual must be designated as the responsible party for the Company's actions and must sign the Member application. Commission and Bonus checks will be made payable to the Business Entity.

When a Business Entity applies to be a Member, the Member agreement may be submitted in the name of the Business Entity, but must include the name and signature of at least one corporate officer, general partner, or trustee authorized to execute contracts for the Business Entity. In addition, a Corporation/Proprietorship/Partnership/Trust form must be submitted providing the names and social security numbers of all partners or trustees and beneficiaries. These persons may not be individual Members, nor shareholders, principals, partners, trustees or beneficiaries of another Business Entity which is a Member within the Company. This does not apply to active Members who wish to change their status from individual Member or Partnership to a Corporate Membership under their existing sponsor. The request must be received by the Company by the 15th of the month and approved in order to be effective on the first of the following month. A person or entity may not apply as a Member using a fictitious or assumed name, except as a business entity. Should it be found or learned that such an Application was accepted by the Company, the Member Application will be considered null and void.

CORPORATE AND PARTNERSHIP GUARANTEE FOR OWNERS:

Although the Company has offered Members the opportunity to conduct their Member business as corporate, proprietorship, partnership, or trust entities, it is agreed that since the Business Entity is under the control of its owners or principals, the actions of individual owners as they may affect the Company and the Member position are also critical to the Company's business. Therefore, it is agreed that actions of shareholders, officers, directors, partners, principals, trustee beneficiaries, agents or employees, which are in contravention to the Company's policies shall be attributable to the corporate or partnership entity,

RETAIL SALES:

This clause of the agreement pertains to the sale of tangible products that the Company may offer to Customers who are not Members. The Company Retail Order Forms are required for all sales of tangible products to consumers. These sales carry the Company Retail Sales Warranty and Consumer Protection Statements required by law.

A Member will, as a fiduciary, be responsible for immediate and proper forwarding of all money the Member receives on behalf of the Company. A Member will retain all sales receipts for review by the Company.

SPONSORING:

The Company neither requires a Member to sponsor nor recruit anyone to participate as a Member in the Company program. Commissions or bonuses earned are not based on sponsoring or recruiting.

ONE SPONSOR RULE: A Member may have only one sponsor. Company prohibits transferring from one sponsor to another.

There are two exceptions to the "One Sponsor" rule above.

1st Exception: A Member may have multiple positions, but only within the array of their original genealogy and they can sponsor themselves into those positions.

2nd Exception: A Member may have multiple positions, but only within the array of their original genealogy and they can be sponsored by another member within their original genealogy array but only if they have written permission from the sponsor of their original position.

Note: The Company does not endorse multiple positions as a wise way to build your business. The practice is not prohibited by this agreement, but each member is cautioned to carefully consider maintaining only one position so as to not diminish the effectiveness of your efforts in helping your downline. When you have only one position, all of your efforts are focused there and will benefit all your downline members most effectively. When you create other positions within your original genealogical array, all your efforts do not benefit all of your downline members and you are setting an example for your downline members that they may follow. The Company's goal is for you to succeed and one position is more than enough of a challenge for most people. One position also has a huge income potential. Many times members think they must start a new position to get a fresh start because they see a lot of inactive members in their genealogy. Nothing could be further from the truth. Due to the compression of inactive positions when commission statements are generated, everyone ends up with more active people within their first compressed six levels on pay day than they have in their first uncompressed six levels as displayed in their genealogy. It is your business and the Company wants you to have the freedom to manage it in the way you see fit. We do not prohibit you from creating multiple positions, but we encourage you to weigh all the consequences of doing so.

It is strictly prohibited for a Member to recruit a Member from another Whole Wellness Club downline into their own downline. Any such attempts shall result in termination as a Member.

In the event a prospective Member is sponsored by more than one person, an evaluation will be necessary to determine who has the sponsoring right. The date on the application form will be the first criteria for evaluation. The Company's corporate office will use its best judgment to determine who the sponsor will be.

Members must refrain from recruiting a prospect for their own purposes when that prospect is in the company of another Member or who has been brought (or sent) to a meeting, conference call, or event with the intent of recruiting that prospect as a Member, regardless of whether or not there has been previous knowledge or acquaintance of the prospect by another Member (people rarely attend meetings or events without an invitation). Members have a right to absolute confidence that when they bring or send prospects to an activity, the prospects will be safe from being "cross-recruited" by other Members during the duration of that recruiting activity. A Member has a right to expect that other Members, whether in the same downline organization or not, will fully support their recruiting efforts. It is, however, the responsibility of the recruiting Member to educate their prospects about how Network Marketing and Sponsoring works so that the prospect can act responsibly and appropriately in a recruiting situation. Violation of this paragraph may lead to the termination of the offending Member.

A Member may not communicate any messages by any media that may induce other members inside or outside of their downline to break any of the sponsoring rules outlined above.

CROSS-SPONSORING:

A Member may sponsor into any other network marketing organization only those Members he/she has personally sponsored into the Company and shall not offer the opportunities or products and services of any other network marketing company to any of the Company's Members, other than those she/he personally sponsored. Exceptions to this are covered in item number 10 above.

MEETINGS:

All business presentations and training sessions shall be conducted in strict conformity with corporately produced scripts, slides and printed material. These materials may not be altered or deviated from in any way. They have been developed and refined to insure that prospects have accurate information upon which to base their decision and to assist new Members in learning proven techniques for achieving success within prescribed guidelines. For this reason, any alteration of scripts, slides, printed materials or videos, or any deviation in the prescribed presentation thereof which compromises the integrity and/or intent of the Company program may result in disciplinary action including termination of the offending Member(s).

TRANSFERRING OR SELLING BUSINESS:

A Member may assign or transfer his/her business to another person, by sale or bequest upon written consent of the Company. Approval will not be unreasonably withheld so long as there is not adverse impact on the marketing program or other Members. The person to which the business is being assigned or transferred must accept legal responsibility for all terms and conditions of the Member Application and all attachments, in writing. Upon the death or incapacity of the Member, his or her rights to bonuses and marketing position, together with Member responsibilities, shall pass to his or her successors in interest upon written application and approval by the Company. The successor Member must fulfill all responsibilities of the Member.

ID NUMBER:

A Member's ID number is generated and assigned by the Company when the Member becomes a Member. This ID number and/or the USERNAME the Member used when becoming a Member, shall become their Company personal identification number.

ORDERS:

All orders must be paid for by check, money order, Western Union QuickPay or Quick Collect, or credit card. Credit Card orders will ship immediately upon confirmation of the credit card transaction. If, at its own discretion, the Company accepts a personal check, it must clear the home office bank before any product delivery or shipment is made and commission is paid. A period of ten (10) business days is allowed before any corresponding transaction will be processed to ensure that all funds are collected. All forms of payment are to be made payable to the Company.

All orders are accepted through the Company web site.

SALES AIDS & LITERATURE:

Although not mandatory, a Member should carry a sufficient inventory of supplies, such as brochures, order forms, and sales aids, when available, to meet the needs of their organization. These items are noncommissioned and do not carry a discount. Items may be ordered by using the official Company Sales Aid Order Form, when available, in the Members area of the Company web site.

SHIPPING:

All sales aids and products must be sent to a street address or PO Box number. Neither general delivery, nor C.O.D. orders will be accepted. EXCEPTION: A few rural areas receive only PO Box and General Delivery and this must be indicated. Shipments are usually made via United States Postal Service (USPS). All shipping and handling costs are the responsibility of the ordering Member.

LOST SHIPMENTS:

If you do not receive your order within 45 calendar days from the date the order was placed, we recommend you promptly call Customer Service. When you call, please have the following information available:

Your Member ID Number or Identifying Email Address

Your Order Number

Your Name

Your telephone number

Freight on Board Shipping Point, (FOB Shipping Point) is a term commonly used when shipping goods, to indicate the point at which the responsibility and ownership of the goods transfers from shipper to buyer. Member agrees that the Company's ownership of product and responsibility for shipping the product is transferred to the Member when the Company can show proof that postage or courier cost was paid for and delivery was made to the shipping point at the post office or to the courier.

A copy of the display in the Company's shipping and postage software pasted in an email to the Member or displayed in the Member's back office on the web site shall constitute proof that postage or courier cost was paid for. A delivery confirmation number displayed at www.usps.com or a tracking number at a courier's web site shall constitute proof that delivery was made to the shipping point at the post office or courier.

Remedy When a Member has not received a shipment and the Company can show proof that postage or courier cost was paid for and delivery was made to the shipping point at the post office or to the courier there is a reasonable remedy.

Clearly the company has met its responsibility. Yet the member has not received the product. The post office or courier will usually not provide satisfaction to the Member. The Company and the Member can share the cost of this remedy. The risk of unsatisfactory delivery exists with every courier so the Company has developed this policy to provide a fair remedy.

In this situation the company will provide re-shipment of the product at a reduced price as per the schedule below. The Member agrees to pay that cost either prior to re-shipment or as a debit against commissions. The Company will choose the payment method for said re-shipment. This will not be a commissionable event. Please contact Customer Service for the cost of re-shipment.

BACK ORDERS:

If the Company is temporarily out of stock on an item in your order, you will receive all other items on your in stock and the back ordered products will be shipped when our stock is replenished. Your order will be filled based on the priority of actual date the order was placed.

DAMAGED SHIPMENTS:

The Company does not ship damaged product. If the product you receive is damaged:

- A) Accept delivery and WRITE ON DELIVERY RECEIPT THE NUMBER of damaged boxes.
- B) Keep damaged products for future inspection by shipping agent.
- C) Make an appointment with the shipping company to have the damaged products inspected.
- D) File a claim with the shipping company, not the Company, as the responsibility for delivery becomes the shipping company's when they leave the Company's warehouse. For damage discovered after deliverer has left, follow the same procedures as described above, except step A.

REFUND POLICY:

As a Member, you may only return product to the Company within sixty (60) days of purchase, based on the order date, in its original sealed and resalable condition only, for a refund. A ten percent (10%) restocking charge is applicable and shipping and handling charges are not refundable. Commissions and/or bonuses, if any, for which the Distributor would have been eligible to receive for the product(s) returned shall be deducted from any amount owed to the Distributor under the company's product return policy. Product(s) must be returned at the expense of the Distributor. Any and all marketing services and/or sales aids including, but not limited to Back-Office System, Auto Responder Sponsoring System, Co-Op Advertising, Auto Responder Leads, Print & Mail Services, post cards, brochures, marketing "flyers," Retail By The Case products, mailing lists or name labels, sample packets, Distributorship Application & Agreement forms, business cards, and/or marketing material are not eligible for a refund under any circumstances once payment is accepted by the Company, or its authorized agent.

In addition, the Company offers the Retail Customer this same Refund Policy through their Members or the Company. Retail Customers are not subject to the ten percent (10%) restocking charge. Each Member is expected to honor the Company Refund Policy in a prompt and courteous manner.

CHARGEBACKS:

Member agrees that charging back on their credit card when the US Post Office confirms delivery of product is an act of fraud against the Company. The Company will respond accordingly. Chargebacks are very damaging to the Company's ability to contract favorably with credit card processors. They are unnecessary and the proper way to remedy a disagreement between the Member and the Company regarding a purchase, is to immediately contact Customer Service.

EXPENSES:

Any and all expenses arising from their business operations are the sole responsibility of the Member, including, but not limited to legal costs, telephone expenses, advertising, etc. A Member is an Independent Contractor and may not represent by implication or otherwise that she/he is an officer, employee, agent or owner of the Company, and as such cannot bind or contract the Company in any manner.

TERRITORIES / FRANCHISES:

Member shall not represent that any exclusive territories or franchises are available under the Company marketing program or that The Member has the authority to grant exclusive rights for the Company products to anyone. There are no exclusive territories.

COPYRIGHT:

All Company materials are protected by U.S. Copyright Statutes. All rights are reserved, including the right to alter, revise, and reprint these materials in whole or in part. Reproduction in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopy, recording, or any information storage and retrieval system is not permitted now or in the future without the prior written consent of the owner of this copyright.

Because of this copyright and the technical information required to market the Company opportunity, no one shall have the right to reproduce for personal use or for sale, any marketing materials, literature, logos, recorded Company events, speeches, flyers, videos, brochures or other aids relevant to the Company without prior written consent of the Company. Producing or using unauthorized materials will be grounds for immediate termination (NO EXCEPTIONS).

TRADEMARKS, TRADENAMES AND ADVERTISING:

The name of the Company and other names as may be adopted by the Company are proprietary trade names and trademarks of the Company. As such, these marks are of great value to the Company and are supplied to Member for Member's use only in an expressly authorized manner. Examples: "Whole Wellness Club", "Peak Enzymes", "With", "Without". Member agrees not to advertise the Company product in any way other than the advertising or promotional materials made available to Member by the Company. Member agrees not to use any written, printed, recorded or any other material in advertising, promoting or describing the product or the Company marketing program, or in any other manner, any material which has not been copyrighted and supplied by the Company, unless such material has been submitted to the Company and approved in writing by the Company before being disseminated, published or displayed.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

Member agrees not to advertise for less than the published Company wholesale member price. This may be cause for immediate termination of the agreement. The current wholesale member price for VelociTea is $40.00 for 8 tea bags (4 packets) and $10.00 for 2 tea bags (1 packet). Advertising for less than the wholesale member price is not a fair business practice. It allows one member to attract sales from the efforts and advertising of many other members. The damage that results from this both to the other members and the Company is significant. Any member found advertising for less than the retail price will be subject to a fine of not less than $250 per day depending on the damages assessed. Damage assessment is in the Company's discretion.

Let it be known to members that any non-member (someone who has no contract or agreement with the Company to represent the Company and sell the Company's products) will be pursued legally for all damages. Any member found to be intentionally supplying a non-member or member for the purpose of circumventing the Company's retail advertising policies will be subject to a fine of not less than $250 per day depending on the damages assessed.

The Member, as an independent contractor, is fully responsible for all of his/her verbal and written statements made regarding the product and marketing program which are not expressly contained in writing in the current Member agreement, and advertising or promotional materials supplied directly by the Company. Member agrees to indemnify the Company and hold it harmless from any and all liability including judgments, civil penalties, refund, attorney fees, court costs or lost business incurred by the Company as a result of Member's unauthorized representations.

The Company will not permit the use of its copyrights, designs, logos, trade names, trademarks, etc. without its prior written permission.

All Company materials, whether printed, on film, on videotape, or produced by sound recording, are copyrighted and may not be reproduced in whole or in part by Members or any other person except as authorized by the Company. Permission to reproduce any materials will be considered only in extreme circumstances. Therefore, a Member should not anticipate that approval will be granted.
